§ 1 Duration
The field placement or „Practical Study Semester“ for students in Religious Education takes place during the winter semester, normally in the period between 01.09 – end of December. The earliest starting date is possible after completion of semester examinations. Usually the placement must end before the beginning of the second part of the practical study semester: Usually from 07.01. in the new year until March the students start with their practical work in Religious Education in School. This part usually takes place in Germany independent from the first period of field placement.

§ 2 Required Working Hours and Exemptions
Completion of 720 working hours in field placement (until December) is required.

PBL- Praxisbegleitende Lehrveranstaltung: The institution of placement may allow the student to attend related lectures at a partner university whenever possible. These additional lectures are not considered as working hours.
Students in international placement are required to have consultation sessions with their chosen professor at the Protestant University of Applied Sciences Ludwigsburg. This can be undertaken in various forms of electronic media. The additional lectures and the consultation sessions together may not exceed 56 hours.

The institution of placement could grant the student five days of work exemption whenever the student applies for this need. Students are exempted from work on official local holidays.

In cases where a student has to be absent from work, the placement organization has to be notified. In cases of illness, the student has to present a medical certificate to the placement supervisor after the third day of absence.

§ 3 Working Conditions
Working hours will comply with local official standards in accordance with the nature of work in the organization of placement. Students may not have night shifts or emergency service without official professional supervision. Students are obliged to conform with standards, rules and professional ethics upheld by the placement organization.

§ 4 Insurance and Costs of Travel
Students are obliged to get the following insurance cover by themselves: international health insurance, accident insurance and liability insurance for the duration of their practical semester.
For travel on behalf of the institution of placement, students will have their travel expenses reimbursed according to the institution’s regulations.

§ 5 Professional Discretion
Students are obliged to secrecy in all professional matters towards third parties, even after the termination of their placement. The provisions of Section 35 SGB I and the Sections 203, 353 b Penal Code and other current data protection regulations, which generally or specifically apply to the institution of placement, are to be observed.

§ 6 The Process of Supervision
The placement supervisor will develop a work plan together with the student on how the learning objectives will be achieved. The plan could include the following procedures:

- Clarification of learning objectives
- Standards where student performance is evaluated
- Frequency of consultation and reflection meetings
- Definition of roles, functions, responsibilities
- A time table and schedule of activities

Placement supervisors are licensed professional practitioners in social work or its related academic disciplines such as social psychology; community education and organization; social development politics and human rights.

§ 7 Termination of Practical Placement Semester

The practical placement semester may be terminated by the placement organization in consultation with the Praxisamt of the Protestant University of Applied Sciences Ludwigsburg and in concurrence with the student. The termination must be done in a written report citing the reasons thereof. The termination takes effect 14 days upon receipt of official notice

§ 8 Evaluation and Exit Interview

An exit interview is suggested to allow placement supervisor to give feedback on student performance. It is suggested that the student documents the evaluation process.

§ 9 Duties of the placement organization

The placement organization issues the following:

- Reference letter („Zeugnis“ oder „Beurteilung”)
- Certificate of Completion („Tätigkeitsnachweis“)

§ 10 Duties of the student

Upon return to the Evangelische Hochschule Ludwigsburg the student is required to submit the following:

- Certificate of Completion to the Praxisamt and a copy to the International Office
- Copy of Reference letter to the Praxisamt
- Practical Placement Report to the Praxisamt and a copy to the PBL-Teacher

§ 11 International Advocacy

Upon successful completion of the placement semester, students upon return to the Evangelische Hochschule Ludwigsburg are highly encouraged to serve as mentors to other students. This will guarantee transfer of important learning experiences and the sharing of common commitment to international advocacy issues. The student allows the Evangelische Hochschule Ludwigsburg to give contact details to other students for purposes mentioned here.

§ 12 Placement Fees and Expense Allowance

Students in international placement are not required to pay placement fees. Placement organizations have the option to provide expense allowance to student
