Intensive Program Diversity Inclusion for Social Cohesion

Protestant University of Applied Sciences,
Ludwigsburg

The thematic emphasis of this intensive program is diversity inclusion for social cohesion as experienced in Europe today.

International students and expert resource persons representing diverse cultures will dialogue over contentious issues spanning sexuality, race, religion, citizenship and ability-disability. The content of this seminar includes cutting edge contributions from experts and scholars from related disciplines

We will examine how exclusionary practices in our society are effectively addressed by anti-discriminatory principles incorporated in international law.

Welcome to all of you to the 2010 second implementation phase of the Erasmus Intensive Program in Diversity Inclusion for Social Cohesion!

The International Office Team
EH - Ludwigsburg
