Welcome Applicants to the Double Degree Program!

INTERNATIONAL SOCIAL WORK WITH CHILDREN, YOUNG PEOPLE AND FAMILIES

This is a seven semester study course jointly implemented by the EH-Ludwigsburg and the Newman University Birmingham, UK. At the end of the study program, students from Germany and the UK are awarded a bachelor degree in Social Work with specialization in working with children, young people and families. Students are considered as having graduated from two universities: EH-Ludwigsburg and Newman University Birmingham.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF A DOUBLE DEGREE PROGRAM?

- This study program will lead you to cutting edge political discourses in Europe and around the world on themes that affect children, young people and families.
- It will open opportunities to experience innovative classes through social laboratories, e-learning teams, blended learning techniques in both theory and practice.
- There will be expert supervision by teaching teams from both universities as soon as you have gained admission to the program.
- Students from Germany will study in Newman University Birmingham in their fourth and fifth semesters. While studying in the EH, German students will be joined by British students in their third and seventh semesters.
- Opportunities to experience professional practice in international social service agencies in the UK, which are multi-cultural and interrelitious. Students will attend seminars which are taught by teams of international teachers.

HOW DOES THIS DOUBLE DEGREE ADVANCE MY PROFESSIONAL CAREER IN INTERNATIONAL SOCIAL WORK?

Students in this double degree program will be awarded a certification that they are graduated by two universities in Germany (EH) and the United Kingdom (NUB).

This provides you with the advantage of having formal professional documentation that is recognized in European countries, and prospectively in the commonwealth states of the UK including Canada, Australia, New Zealand, India, South Africa, Jamaica, Botswana, Fiji and others.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

For the double degree program, the EH Ludwigsburg has succeeded in getting the support of the BMBF through the DAAD. All students who qualify under this program will receive a monthly scholarship that potentially covers cost of living in the UK during their fifth and sixth semesters abroad. They will also be prioritized under the normal Erasmus scholarship grant.

WHAT ARE EXPECTED FROM STUDENTS?

- Ability to cope with innovative teaching methods and challenging course content.
- Willingness to study modules and seminars taught in English.
- Persistence in acquiring English language competence should you still need this in the fourth and fifth semesters abroad.
- Openness to experience multi-cultural life in all its diverse challenges in the UK.
- Capacity to offer support, collaboration and team solidarity with teachers and other students.
