HOW TO APPLY FOR A SEMESTER IN LUDWIGSBURG?

If you are considering to spend a semester at the Protestant University of Applied Sciences (EH), please make sure to send the application forms until 6 months before your intended semester of study. The needed forms are:

- Application form “Learning agreement for theory semester”
- Europass Curriculum Vitae
- Motivational letter
- Endorsement letter from the International Office of your home university
- Transcript of Records
- Language Certificates (English or German: B1 or higher)

WHERE TO GET FURTHER INFORMATION?

Have a look at our homepage: http://www.eh-ludwigsburg.de/international

Contact the International Office of the EH. Call or write:

Dr. Carmen Grimm

c.grimm@eh-ludwigsburg.de
+49 - 7141 - 9745 - 243

Renate Kuffart

r.kuffart@eh-ludwigsburg.de
+49 - 7141 - 9745 - 240
STUDYING A SEMESTER IN LUDWIGSBURG

The Protestant University of Applied Sciences in Ludwigsburg offers incoming students the opportunity to live and learn in an open and practice-oriented environment. We offer classes in Social Work, Early Childhood Education, Deaconry, Religious Education, Nursing and Care, and Inclusive Pedagogy and Special Needs Education.

If you are capable to study in German, you may choose from all classes offered in your semester. In addition to our classes taught in German, we offer courses and practical experiences in English.

LIVING IN LUDWIGSBURG

The Protestant University of Applied Sciences (EH) is a state-recognised university offering best study conditions for approximately 1200 students. Our campus is located in Ludwigsburg on the Karlshohe. Ludwigsburg is both a center of education & media and home of magnificent castles, romantic gardens, bustling shopping streets and sensational festivals. The city of Stuttgart, Baden-Württemberg’s capital, is only 12 kilometers away and easily reachable by train.

EXAMPLES OF CLASSES OFFERED IN ENGLISH

♦ PRACTICE OF SOCIAL WORK

⇒ Social and cultural dimensions of aging and old age: Participatory research project
  The objective of the practice-oriented seminar is to contribute to the development of skills in person-oriented problem solving, decision making and good judgment, situational analysis and critical awareness.

⇒ Studying and Working in a World without Borders
  Students will be introduced to interpersonal skills needed to succeed in meeting the demands of studies, internship or work in a culture different from one’s own.

♦ GLOBAL AND COMMUNITY ORIENTED TASKS

⇒ Comparative National and International Social Work Practice

⇒ Reflecting on Social Work Practice in International Context

⇒ Diversity, Civil Society- and Grassroot Activism

♦ SYSTEMIC COUNSELLING

♦ GENDER POLICIES: NATIONAL, EUROPEAN AND INTERNATIONAL TRANSFORMATIVE PERSPECTIVES

♦ SOCIAL WORK AS PROFESSION AND DISCIPLINE

ADDITIONAL OFFERS

⇒ One-day city trip organized by the International Office

⇒ German Language Class

⇒ Buddy- and language tandem program